Scholastic Book Fair - Thank You for your support, we sold over Five Thousand dollars worth of books, with the Scholastic commission we now have One Thousand dollars to spend on books for the children. I have ordered over 100 of the most popular titles, your patience would be appreciated as we wait for the next delivery.

A huge thank you to Roberta Chahoud and Jacqueline Springett, the Fair could not run without their help. We are always excited to see the children so excited about choosing and buying their own book.

Preschool and Kindergarten hatched ducklings by KS

The ducks came in an egg box and they went in the tank to hatch. After that they went in the play pen. They now now how to eat and drink. They drink water and they eat little food that looks like dog food. There used to be 10 ducklings, but now there are only nine. Tarzan died. Today we took the ducklings for a swim down in the bottom playground. They played on the grass. Some people got splashed. They didn’t want to go back in their box. Tinkabell splashed the most water. Belle is the smallest and she was the last one to hatch. It has been fun having the ducks in the classroom. We have all held them. They go back on Friday.

SOLO SOIREE

Time is running out to register for this year’s Solo Soiree. To be a part of this event, you need to register your child and the piece they will be playing with Lisa (lhealy@v7mail.com) by Tuesday, 10th June at the latest so we can put together the program.

The concert will be held on Sunday, 15th June from 3.30 – 5.00pm in the School Hall.

Students can perform individually or in a duet. The only requirements are that the piece be short (about 2 – 3 minutes or less) and not be one of their band or ensemble pieces. It is fine to use a backing track, if needed.

The concert provides a pleasant environment for students to build their confidence and individual performance skills. Parents of the performers are requested to bring a plate of food for the afternoon tea afterwards.

OPERA HOUSE CONCERT

Please note that tickets are now on sale for the Jacaranda Concert at the Sydney Opera House. Our experienced Strings and Recorder students will be performing in this concert on Wednesday, 25th June. There is a limit of four tickets per booking. Participants in the concert do not need a ticket. See http://www.sydneyoperahouse.com/whatson/the_jacaranda_concert_2014.aspx
